

ITALIAN SPECIALITIES

WHO WE ARE

FourChef is an Italian company specialized in the production of ready to eat Italian specialties like: Risotto, pasta and many others.

All our products are realized thanks to a patented process that ensures a premium quality, and better taste experience.

OUR INNOVATIVE PATENTED PROCESS

Our process is obtained thanks to the combination of different steps, that preserve the technological and organoleptical characteristics of all the ingredients used.

Thanks to this process we are able to:

Guarantee longer shel life, without using preservatives

Esnure better taste experience and premium quality

Reduce new product development time
